

TRAINING AND PLACEMENT CELL

A Training and Placement Cell has been set up by K.L.E University's College of Pharmacy, Bangalore to train and place the outgoing students in Pharmaceutical companies and business corporations and to provide information on various career opportunities. The cell coordinates various activities such as organizing industrial training programmes as per the curriculum, counseling students on career options, organizing guest lectures and pre-placement lectures to train the students to face the interviews and arranging campus interviews from various Pharmaceutical concerns. So far,

II. AIMS & OBJECTIVES

- To arrange industrial training programmes as per the curriculum.
- To counsel the students on career options and provide information on current employment opportunities.
- To organize programmes on personality development and communication skills to train students to face interviews.
- To arrange campus interviews from various Pharmaceutical and business concerns.
- To develop and maintain symbiotic relationship with Pharmaceutical industries.
- To maintain the record of recruitments and training.
- To motivate entrepreneurship
- The Training and Placement Cell provides a platform for students to help them choose their career.